History of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis

Indianapolis was established as a town in 1821. It was at this time that a commission, appointed by the legislature, selected this location as a site for a seat of government of the State of Indiana.

The town of Indianapolis conducted its affairs pursuant to the general laws of the state until 1832. In this year the town was incorporated and was governed by a board of five trustees.

In 1838, pursuant to a special act of the legislature, Indianapolis was re-incorporated and placed in the hands of its first town council composed of a president and six members.

The common council continued in a large measure to control the affairs of Indianapolis as a town and as a city under various so-called charters or grants of the legislature until 1891.

Under a special act of the legislature of 1891 for the city of Indianapolis, a somewhat different form of government was established. While the council continued to exercise broad control over the city's affairs, various executive departments of the city were provided, such as Public Works, Public Safety, Public Parks and Public Health, conducted by boards appointed by the Mayor. These boards were granted specific powers and duties concerning the city's business previously exercised by the council through committees subject, however, in some cases to approval of the council in all matters of expenditure of money and appropriation of funds by the council.

For some time prior to 1891 the City of Indianapolis was divided into 25 wards represented by 25 ward councilmen. Their term of office was two years and they were eligible for re-election. At this time there was also a separate body operating in conjunction with the council called the Board of Aldermen, composed of ten Aldermen, representing five Aldermanic districts, two being elected from each district.

Under the 1891 act the Board of Aldermen was abolished and a common council of 21 members was established. Fifteen members were elected to represent 15 wards and six members were elected to represent the city at large.

This form of council continued to exist in Indianapolis under the general cities and towns act of 1905. The act of 1905, while often referred to as the Indianapolis Charter, is very largely a re-enactment of the 1891 Indianapolis charter, modified to make the Indianapolis system applicable to all classes of cities of the state. The 1905 law increased the term of Mayor and councilman to four years and prohibited re-election.

In 1909 a novel councilmanic law for Indianapolis alone was passed by the legislature. This law limits the number of councilmen to nine. The law provides for the nomination by each party of six candidates, one from each of six councilmanic districts. In the election all of the voters of the city may vote for any nine candidates and the nine receiving the highest number of votes are elected. This law insures a minority representation in the Council of at least three members. In 1949 the legislature amended the statutes to permit councilmen to succeed themselves.

May 13, 1958

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

I am this day returning to the City Clerk, Mrs. Teresa F. Laffey, General Ordinance No. 34, 1958 without my signature. The signature of the Mayor is withheld for the following reasons which were arrived at by me after a discussion of the ordinance with the members of the City Council, the City Traffic Engineer and with other persons familiar with the traffic situation on Kentucky Avenue.

- (1.) Kentucky Avenue is a main traffic artery leading out of the city through the Southwest and this ordinance removes every parking restriction during every hour of the day.
- (2.) That traffic congestion and a traffic jam will occur unless parking is restricted in this area, particularly in the periods of heavy traffic from 7:00 A.M. to 9:00 A.M. and from 4:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M.

The approval of the Mayor is accordingly withheld as to General Ordinance No. 34, 1958.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILLIP L. BAYT
Mayor

INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL ORDINANCES

By Councilman Wallace:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 86, 1958

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, as amended, providing for the licensing and regulation of taxicabs and fixing a time when same shall take effect, and repealing any ordinance in conflict therewith.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. That Section 7-1706, subsection (1) of General Ordinance No. 140, 1951 as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

RENEWALS AND TRANSFERS AND TERMINATION OF LICENSES.—1. Except as herein provided, any person lawfully holding any one or more such licenses for taxicabs and not in default of any provisions hereof, shall be entitled to obtain a renewal license for each taxicab actually owned and controlled or operated by him, and for each license issued in his name even if at the time of such renewal no taxicab is owned or being operated therewith in accordance with the provisions of Section 7-1711 Subsection 2 as amended or as provided for herein, for each ensuing year, by paying the annual fee of seventy-five dollars for each such license and by maintaining in effect the required insurance policy for each vehicle operated.

Section 2. That Section 7-1711, Subsection (2), of General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. That Section 7-1711, Subsection (2), of General Ordinance

nance No. 140, 1951, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(2) No licensee shall operate more taxicabs than such licensee is licensed to operate but shall at all times operate a sufficient number of such taxicabs so that the public shall receive reasonably adequate service. A licensee may from time to time for indefinite periods remove taxicabs from service without replacing same and if such period of time shall exceed ninety (90) days, such licensee shall deliver to the Board of Public Safety written notification of the taxicabs so retired from active service, specifying the particular license number of each taxicab so retired. By so doing a licensee shall in no way surrender any right or title to such licenses and the licenses for taxicabs removed from service shall remain in full force and effect. When any license is so retired from service as provided for above and in the event the Board of Public Safety at any time may consider that taxicab service to the public is inadequate, then, in such case such Board may request all licensees who have removed taxicabs from service to return within a reasonable length of time such taxicabs or a portion of same to active service as the Board may consider necessary, or, if such taxicabs have been disposed of, to purchase or acquire taxicabs within a reasonable time to replace those so disposed of or a portion of same as the Board shall consider the public convenience and necessity requires. If any licensee shall object within five (5) days after receipt of such notice, then the Board shall hold a hearing in which such licensee shall be permitted to submit evidence concerning service rendered and the effect that the operation of additional taxicabs would have on such licensees business at such time. If after such hearing the Board of Public Safety shall determine that public convenience and necessity requires the operation of additional taxicabs, then such licensee shall be required to return to service such number of taxicabs as ordered by the Board or to replace same within a reasonable time if such taxicabs have been disposed of. In determining the number of taxicabs each licensee shall return to service no licensee shall be required to operate a greater portion of his licenses than any other licensee.

Section 3. That Section 7-1719, Subsection (6), of General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, as amended, is hereby repealed.

Section 4. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the Mayor and compliance with all laws pertaining thereto.

December 12, 1958

Honorable President and Members of the Common Council and Honorable Teresa F. Laffey, City Clerk

Dear Council Members and Mrs. Laffey:

During the past three years it has been my pleasure to work with the Common Council and the City Clerk as the elected officers of the City of Indianapolis. It is my observation that we have worked together in the common interest and have generally accomplished a great many things together for the good of our City.

As you know, in the election of last November 4, 1958, the people of Marion County elected me to be Prosecutor of Marion County and I must assume and take over the duties of that office January 1, 1959. For that reason I must end my services as Mayor of Indianapolis and must submit my resignation to take over my new duties. I do, therefore, accordingly resign as Mayor effective as of the close of business December 31, 1958, having completed a full three years period in the office of Mayor.

By operation of law the City Controller, Mr. Charles H. Boswell, succeeds me as Mayor. I am confident that he will acquit himself well as my successor for the remaining year of this administration and I ask you to give him the same fine cooperation and public spirit which has marked your conduct as Councilmen and as City Clerk of Indianapolis.

Be assured that the Council, the City Clerk, and the City government of Indianapolis has my continued best wishes and I stand willing to assist or to consult with any of the City officials pertaining to any matters of City government at any time in the future.

With continued high regards, I remain

Yours very respectfully,

PHILLIP L. BAYT, Mayor
